

Snow White – Audition Side #1 for Snow White

SW

I did nothing for seven years. Everything was done for me. (4 becomes her servant, uses the stepma's lacy cloth as a bedspread) (to audience) Can you believe it? Servants made my bed. (to servant) I could do that.

They would dress me, mend my clothes, cook my food, I spent all my time telling jokes. (to servant) Hey! Knock knock (who bustles away) to myself, wandering on my own through the long dusty corridors of the castle. I just wanted someone to have fun with, someone to play with, a friend. If my stepmother wasn't around, I would stand on tiptoe at the high windows, (she does this) watching the birds soaring and wheeling in the air. Feeding them when they came close. There you go (throwing seed to the birds). Those birds were my only real friends.

I'd stand there for hours looking through the window, watching children like me laughing and running around. Wondering... wondering what it would be like to be out there with them, have them laugh at my jokes. Knock knock. Who's there. Me. Me who? Just me.

I couldn't do anything, I didn't know how to do anything. I felt like a doll stuck on a shelf waiting for someone to play with me, waiting for something to happen. And then it did. But not quite what I had expected.
